Words from our President

Aloha to One and All,

Wow! Our 2005 meeting attendance is breaking all records! We had 78 members and 14 guests in attendance in July. Considering how busy we all are during the summer season it is a real pleasure to have so many members join us.

Guests at the meeting were Ron Berger from Milton, Michael Sadler from Puyallup, Rick & Pat Ford from Tacoma, Jason James from Lakewood, Kern Moore from Maple Valley, David & Barb Rock from Lakewood, Anthony & Monique from Tacoma and Dennis & Elaine Walch from Puyallup. Having met all membership requirements, Dennis and Elaine were welcomed in as new club members. A BIG CLASSICAL GLASS WELCOME to you all.

The club door prize was a certificate for a pullover windbreaker, with the CGCC logo, from the club's store. Unfortunately, Laurie King was not present to claim the prize. That means it may belong to you at the August meeting. Come and find out! Now that the season is in full swing, it's great to see so many CGCC members taking part in road trips, car shows and other events. I'm glad to report that there were approximately 125 members and guests in attendance at the club's 2nd annual picnic at Point Defiance Park on the 3rd of July. From the smiles on everyone's faces, I believe fun was had by all. The picnic is a chance for CGCC to give a little back to its members and it looks like it will be a tradition that will be enjoyed for a long time to come. Please don't forget the club's big event for the year, Five Star, will be on August 6th and 7th. It will start with a car show at our sponsor, Friendly Chevrolet, on Saturday morning, and will conclude with an Autocross at the old Emerald Queen parking lot on Sunday. Please check the web site for details and locations of all of the events activities. We hope to see each and every member come on out and join the fun and support the club. It's another chance to get together with other corvetters to have a good time. See you there!!

The August 13th meeting will be chaired by our esteemed Secretary, Jan Johnson, as I, and many others, will be attending the annual Rose City Classic in Portland. Please remember we are still taking nominations for 2006 officer positions. Nominations will be taken from the floor during the August meeting or you may contact any member of the nominating committee. All nominations are welcome as long as the member has agreed to run prior to being nominated. See details in this edition of the Under Glass. NWACC (Northwest Association of Corvette Clubs) has announced an all club Autocross to be held on Sunday, October 2nd, at the Shelton airport. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Little Creek Casino out of Shelton for those who would like to come down the night before for a little hospitality. Further details will be forthcoming but, mark your calendars now. This will be the perfect end to a busy and fun corvette season.

That's all for now! Save the Wave!

HI-YU Parade in South Seattle was a day to remember!

The skies were blue and the sun was hot. Four cars from our CGCC showed and carried two honored guest and proudly rolled down California Street. We were honored to get to cruise with the MIATA club. This was a nice and long parade. The streets were filled with cheering spectators. We should put this one on our calendar of events in 2006.

CORVETTE

The Perfect Weekend

If you weren't one of us on the Rainforest tour and stayed home to work in the yard like we probably should have done, you missed a great time and perfect weather both Saturday and Sunday.

We started with 13 cars as we left Mc Donald's on 512 and headed to Aberdeen. The skies were gray but we could see patches of blue so we were hopeful. We had more New members traveling this time and that was good to see. Our first stop was Aberdeen for breakfast and from there we headed to the rainforest and right into the sunshine.

Until you take a cruise around the Olympics or visit any of Washington States National Parks you might forget what a beautiful place we live in. In just a few hours drive you can get lost in a rain forest although none of us did. We did however have a slight problem getting through Aberdeen .Our fearless leader missed the turnoff to Hoquiam and we were spread out for several blocks but that's what CB's are for and why we have them. It's a good thing the "wrong way" handle is already taken or we would have to change "tool man" to "wrong way". Thankfully there weren't any cops around or he would have gotten one of those tickets for traveling down a street the WRONGWAY too. He didn't go far and NO one followed him, after a few minutes all our ducks were back in a row and we made it to the Rainforest.

Some cars came just for the day so after our "walking" rainforest tour we were down to 10 cars. We didn't need to have a ranger lead our group since our own events chairman Don Mulligan knew so much about the trees and moss. Moss hanging down on huge trees with odd shapes was a sight to see. Creeks with moss and algae growing in it like rivers of green in crystal clear water was a sight to see. I'd like to say it was peaceful and quiet and you were one with nature but there were 22 CGCC members hiking up a trail so quiet it wasn't, but fun it was.

Our next stop was Lake Quinalt then on to Lake Crescent for another picture and potty break. The only lines we had to stand in all day were ones for the bathroom. What a beautiful day for a drive in the corvettes. Beautiful scenery, good roads and good friends made it even better.

We arrived in Pt. Angeles in time for a little R&R in George & Liz Longhurst's room then headed for dinner. Having so many new members on their first weekend tour made for great dinner conversation.

We had a few more cars head home Saturday evening so Sunday morning we were down to 7 Corvettes. Our first stop was for gas then we did a drive by Diane Ganders Fathers house so he could see the cars then headed up the hill to Hurricane ridge. What a breathtaking drive that was. Once you make it to the top you just want to sing "Amazing Grace". You have mountains on one side and after a little drive down the other side you see the sound on the other side. More pictures taken there and we took the time just to breathe the fresh air and soak up the views.

I found out we have a member that is part mountain goat. Susie Wilcox climbed partway down a mountain just to take pictures of flowers. Jack says she is his “flower girl”

Next stop was the Squium Lavender festival for lunch and a little browsing then a straight shot home over the Hood Canal Bridge. We didn’t even have to slow down to cross our own Narrows Bridge.

Another wonderful weekend with a few old friends and taking the time to make many new ones. It is the reason we take these trips. Come on the next one with us.

It was a great weekend cruising with these members:
Don Mulligan, John & Marilyn Underhill (he didn’t lose his camera either) John & Jan Johnson, Dave & Antje Crawford, Len & Elvira Tucker, Jack & Susie Wilcox, Bill & Diane Gander, George & Liz Longhurst, Tim Tilton, Doug & Maile Willrich, Don Rollins and his Granddaughter and Dave and I. Our 13th was a young Man who just graduated from UW and has only had his Vette for 2 weeks. He will be leaving for Officers school in Kentucky in a month but wanted to take a cruise with the club. He left us in Aberdeen. He brought his Dad too.

Thanks to Don Mulligan for all the planning on this one. The hotel was very nice although he was the only one without a water view. The restaurants were good and even the pit stops were scenic. It took work to do the job you did and we all appreciated it.

Book Club

Mark Twain once said, "Don't explain your author, read him right and he explains himself". While this might be true about any book Mark Twain wrote, it's hard to believe in the case of our July Book,

THE JANE AUSTEN BOOK CLUB by Karen Fowler.

Even though attendance was down due to summer activities, it was hard to give a thumbs up to this book.

Difficult reading unless you are a know ledged fan of Jane Austen. While the book was about a Book Club and the people in it, the underlying current was about understanding Jane Austen's novels. (Thumbs down) We are all looking forward to the wit and entertainment we will get from our August Book, OPEN HOUSE by Elizabeth Berg. This book is a great summer read. Relaxing, easy and fun. Join us at our next meeting on August 21st at Borders Book and Music in Tacoma off of 38th near the Tacoma mall.

If you are interested or have any questions, call

Willow Flint at 253-862-9374. See you there!
